Hello Parents,

Distance Learning Students

Please bring in your student's Figurative Language Booklet by the end of next Monday 11/16.

What We Are Learning

The students will be taking their RISE Interim on Wednesday. This week we are preparing to start our next novel study, The Phantom Tollbooth. We are learning how to annotate and continuing to study figurative language. We are continuing in drafting their Argumentative Essays, as well as moving to the editing and revising stage. This essay will be due on November 19th!
