Hello Parents,

I wanted to share a donation opportunity for my class. We need a class set of books for our novel study for next term. This is a great way to get volunteer hours and it is super beneficial to my class. Here is the link to the project that you can donate to:

I wanted to send a reminder about attendance on Fridays. In order to be marked as "here" on Friday your student must interact in some way with their classes. If they do not complete any assignments or attend any zoom meetings for any class then they will be marked as absent. Please encourage your student to log on to Google Classroom on Fridays.

What We Are Learning

This week we are reading The Downsiders both in class and at home individually. We will be discussing predictions, theme, and building our understanding of the characters. The students have their Chapter 2 Questions do at the end of the week (Sunday night). For writing we will be starting to learn about Argumentative vs. Persuasive essays.
